About Security 50

SECURITY TOP 50

Security 50 represents the industry's leaders, highlighting their strengths in different product categories such as Video Surveillance, Access Control, Biometrics, Alarm (Intrusion Detection) and Multiple. It is a ranking of manufacturers, not including installation, distribution or resale income. As a leading trade publication and media platform with a global network, A&S is uniquely positioned to collect information from influential companies worldwide. After months of number crunching, researching and interviewing, we present this year's Security 50 ranking.
